

SYMPOSIUM: QUALITATIVE OPEN SCIENCE

CHALLENGES, OPPORTUNITIES, TENSIONS & SYNERGIES

PLENARY TALKS

ANNAYAH PROSSER	Unheard, or unspoken? Exploring qualitative researcher understandings of the opportunities, risks, and potential future of open research
AGATA BOCHYNSKA	Supporting the adoption of Open Science practices by qualitative researchers. An institutional case study
NICKI LISA COLE	Why the Open Science movement needs qualitative researchers
STEPHEN GIBSON	Towards an interactionally-based open science: Exploring the discourse and rhetoric of psychological experiments
SANDER BOSCH	Supporting qualitative Open Science through institutional policy and infrastructure
BOGDANA HUMA & SAM HEIJNEN	Co-creating a vision for the future of qualitative Open Science

PARALLEL WORKSHOPS

PETER BRANNEY	Open Science and qualitative research: FAIR archiving, safeguarding and stewarding of potentially identifiable qualitative data
LOTTE VAN BURGSTEDEN	Building qualitative Open Science communities: challenges and opportunities
RICARDA BRAUKMANN	Archiving and publishing qualitative data – repository perspective
MADELEINE POWNALL	Incorporating Open Science in qualitative methods teaching
JACK JOYCE	The practicalities of qualitative data sharing
BABAJIDE OWOYELE	Masking tactics and strategies for deidentifying audio-visual data in qualitative research
BARBARA GROOT-SLUIJSMANS	Employing Community Science in qualitative research

28 MARCH 2025

VRIJE UNIVERSITEIT AMSTERDAM

Registration:

Organized by:
Bogdana Huma
Sam Heijnen

Funded by: Open Science NL

